Sconversation!

RDA Riverina, Charles Sturt University and CWA Uranquinty Evening Branch would like to invite you to a Sconversation with Winner of the 2019 NSW-ACT AgriFutures Rural Women's Award Jo Palmer.

Jo Palmer is a local business woman, a Charles Sturt University Alumni and a member of the CWA Uranquinty Evening Branch. Jo has local connections and big ideas making her connections grow.

Hear about her business, Pointer Remote Roles, what it can do to help people with skills in remote locations be more connected; the fantastic process of the Agrifutures Rural Woman of the Year awards; and in CWA awareness week, hear about what Uranquinty CWA Evening branch is doing to raise awareness about Women's mental health in regional NSW.

Join us for morning tea!
